Workshop Description

In conjunction with the Office of Graduate Studies, Dr. Martonia Gaskill (Assistant Professor of Education) and Amber Alexander (Online Program Coordinator and Lecturer) will host a workshop on ePortfolios as a powerful tool for students to document and demonstrate cutting edge skills. ePortfolios can elevate the standard resume to a live and descriptive portrait of students sophisticated abilities such as communication, writing and critical thinking skills, and their readiness for the competitive job market.

Students attending this workshop can expect to:

- ◆ Learn ePortfolio basics and why you should have one
- ◆ Learn about online tools and resources to help you with ePortfolio development
- ◆ Get advice on what to include in your professional ePortfolio
- ◆ View samples of ePortfolios from students in several fields of study
- ◆ Get started building your ePortfolio

This workshop will be recorded and posted on the Graduate Studies webpage.
